A FEW WORDS ON HOSPITALITY.

On the 24th of September there will begin a three-days' session in Janesville of a convention of Congregational churches of Wisconsin. It has been thirty years since a convention of these churches was held in this city, and the gathering next month will be one of the largest, and most important in its influence, of any ecclesiastical body that has met in Janesville for many years. It is an honor to the city to have such a convention held here. There will be some three hundred delegates in attendance, and, of course, such a delegation coming from any of the orthodox churches, would stand as representatives of the best religious thought and Christian culture to be found in the state. It is for this reason that the event will be one of special interest—not merely to the denomination to which the delegates belong—but to the citizens generally who earnestly desire that Janesville shall establish a firm reputation in extending a hearty welcome to all such gatherings of whatever church, and that its hospitality shall be characterized by a spirit of down-right Christian brotherhood and generosity.

There is hardly anything that can build better for a town or city than free, open-hearted, practical hospitality. A city that is known for its hospitality will also be well known for many other good works; and so the Gazette urges upon the citizens of Janesville to put themselves in a frame of mind to give the forthcoming convention a most cordial welcome, and also to tender the hospitalities of their home to the delegates. Aside from the social feature of thus entertaining the members of the convention, which will be full of interest and pleasure, there will be inseparably connected with it another thing—that of profit for Janesville. There will be three hundred or more good people coming from every county in the state, all of influence and high social standing, sounding the praise of Janesville. This feature of the case may be looked upon as one of self-interest for the city, but that is all right, for a city as well as an individual, should work for a good name and a high reputation. Janesville, when it does anything good, should have its praises sounded, like any other city, and the Gazette does sincerely hope that all citizens who have comfortable homes and some room to spare, will show forth that genuine spirit of hospitality in entertaining delegates to the convention next month, which will honor themselves and be a credit to the fair name of the city.

THE NEED OF ROAD-MAKING.

There is no enterprise in the western states that is in a more demoralized condition than that of wagon road-making. In fact there is no enterprise at all in that direction, and whether there ever will be such a thing as efficient work in the line of making good roads west of Ohio, is a question. The experience of the west is that one of the things which it needs most, aside from railways, is a well made, substantial wagon road. There are very few such roads in the west and there are not ten miles in all the state of Wisconsin.

Ohio has done something to improve its wagon roads, and Pennsylvania has ordered a general tax levy of 7½ mills for the improvements of its roads. Captain F. V. Greene, who has done much to awaken an interest in road-making, has written a very timely article for Harper's Weekly on roads and road-making, in which he shows the necessity for a solid road bed on public highways. He gives some important statistics relative to the force required to draw a ton over the various street surfaces. A surface of iron requires a force of but ten pounds, one of asphalt fifteen pounds, wood twenty-one pounds, best stone block thirty-three pounds, average cobble stone ninety pounds, macadam one hundred pounds, earth two hundred pounds. These estimates are for the wheels of a single horse. The cost of the road bed is not taken into account. A single horse with asphalt pavement could carry three times as heavy a load as at present, or work a much longer number of hours. The saving which would be effected, he believes, would be not less than $5,000,000 a year.

But, of course, the chief point in Captain Greene's article is in showing the importance of solid roads in the country. The loss annually to the farming community on account of bad roads is more than they imagine. As Captain Greene shows, the farmer is forced to use double the power in drawing a load of grain to market over a common road than would be required to draw it over a solid road-bed of the macadam sort. It is not likely that the country roads will ever be built of asphaltum, but it is not difficult nor expensive to macadamize the chief roads leading into a city. The result of all such roads is this, "the value of land will certainly increase, the cost of transportation will certainly diminish, and the fact that there will be less wear and tear upon the nerves of the people will also have a real value, whether it has a cash value or not."

A southern student who is in Paris, writes a letter from that city to the Charleston News and Courier, describing an amusing attempt of the American

THE VETERANS SEPARATE.

CLOSE OF THE G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

Proceedings of the Last Business Session—Crowds Going Home—Closing Scenes.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 31.—The national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic completed its work here and adjourned since Friday after installing the new officers. At the opening of the final session the pension question again came up and was debated at length. Finally the following resolution was adopted:

"That the action of the twenty-second national encampment upon the matter of pensions is hereby reaffirmed and that the committee is hereby instructed to use all possible means to secure legislation in accordance with the resolutions of that encampment."

By this action the encampment indorses both the disability and per-diem bills for the second time. There was a prolonged discussion upon a resolution to promote legislation giving to all inmates of soldiers' homes who desire to live outside of such homes a pension of $15 monthly. It was vigorously opposed, on the ground that if the disability bill is passed at the next session of Congress the veterans would be in question anyhow, whether they lived in the home or out of it. It was defeated. Majority and minority reports were submitted on the proposition of the department of Massachusetts setting disfranchising past department commanders and allowing them hereafter simply seats upon the floor of the encampment as visitors. The effect of this would have been to largely reduce the voting strength of future bodies. The resolution was finally defeated by a vote of 137 to 38. An adverse report was presented and approved upon the proposition to give the oldest sons of veterans a qualified membership in the order. It was decided that the quorum of posts with a membership of less than fifty should be five. The committee reported favorably upon the resolution allowing all comrades who have been dropped from the roll to be reinstated upon the payment of back dues. A touching letter of thanks from Mrs. Sheridan, relating to insertion in the last report of a memorial shot and picture of her deceased husband, was read by Gen. Warner. In a few well chosen words Gen. Warner expressed his appreciation of the confidence and support which had been extended him during his term of office and introduced his successor, Gen. Alger. The new commander-in-chief, with the subordinate officers, were formally installed with the usual ceremonies, and with three hearty cheers the delegates filed out of the hall. Gen. Fairchild's resolution to mark the rebel lines at Gettysburg was buried, the committee reporting adversely upon it. The reason given for that action was that there are a large number of other battlefields not yet marked by monuments of Union soldiers.

The New Council.
The new council of administration was elected, including among its members the following: Dakota, F. P. Peck, Sioux Falls; Illinois, A. B. Rhodes, Evanson; Indiana, Benjamin Staller, Richmond; Iowa, L. B. Raymond, Hamlin; Kansas, O. H. Colter, Topeka; Michigan, Louis J. Keady, Adrian; Minnesota, Albert Schaefer, St. Paul; Ohio, L. H. Williams, Ripley; Nebraska, P. S. Clarkson, Omaha; Wisconsin, J. A. Watrous, Milwaukee.

Immediately after the adjournment of the national encampment the new council of administration met. Commander-in-Chief Alger presided and Col. E. F. Van der Veer acted as secretary. There were present twenty-two of the members elected. On motion $2,000 was appropriated for traveling expenses of the commander-in-chief, $1,200 was voted to the quartermaster-general, $300 to the judge-advocate-general, and $300 for the inspector general. The bond of the quartermaster-general was fixed at $1,200, the adjutant-general at $1,000. On motion it was ordered that an edition of 10,000 copies of the proceedings of the twenty-third national encampment be printed for general distribution among all the departments.

Commander-in-Chief Alger said at the close of the meeting of the new council of administration: "I shall issue my first general order as I get home, and I have had time to rest and look over the field. It will briefly recount this gathering and have something to say of the meeting in Berlin."

Before 1 o'clock in the afternoon all the business of the encampment of 1889 was finished and the few remaining delegates were on a rush for a train or else resting up after the fatigues of the last three days.

The Woman's Relief Corps.
The Woman's Relief Corps concluded its sessions Friday. The election of officers for the first business of the morning session. The officers elected are: President, Mrs. Anna Wittenmeyer, Philadelphia; senior vice president, Mrs. Manchester Lincoln, Rich. This was followed by an exemplification of the new ritual. On its conclusion an adjournment was taken to Immanuel church, where business was resumed. Just before adjournment at 1 o'clock Mrs. Oliver of Colorado mounted the rostrum and in a pleasing little speech presented Mrs. Craig on behalf of the National Woman's Relief Corps with a solid silver service of six pieces for the 4-weeks-old daughter of Mrs. Craig. The set consists of a pitcher, bowl, tray and knife, fork, and spoon. Mrs. Craig replied feelingly.

Closing Scenes in Milwaukee.
The scenes in Milwaukee Friday were those attendant on a general encampment of strangers. The processions were toward the depots, and the big lake steamers hauled back the crowds they brought. The city in souvenir badges and memorabilia for the first time did a little business, owing to the thinning out of the crowds, and for the first time the visitors loosened on their purse strings a little. The Flank-ton house is still moderately full. On all the other hotels are pretty well thinned out. A resume of the encampment and its effects on Milwaukee cannot be properly given as yet. It was a great success from a Grand Army of the Republic standpoint, but there are strong doubts whether the business men will return any such verdict. The crowds were here, however, and the only complaint that can be made is that the people either had no money or did not spend it if they had. Careful estimates place the total number of visitors to the city during the week at 175,000.

The Behring Sea Question Slighted.
OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 31.—The omission of any reference to the Behring sea difficulty or the position the British government intends taking in the Queen's speech proroguing parliament has caused great indignation here, where it was fully expected that an intimation would be given of the policy Lord Salisbury intends following in the matter.

MR. SCOTT ARRAIGNED.

CHARGED WITH RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE Trouble at Spring Valley.

SPRING VALLEY, Ill., Aug. 31.—The Spring Valley Sentinel publishes an article on the miners' strike, depicting the out-look here and holding Mr. Scott responsible for the present situation. It says that Mr. Devin, who owns one-seventh of the capital stock of the company, offered to take the mines and run them and pay the company 15 cents a ton clear of expenses. This was refused by Mr. Scott, president of the company. The Sentinel does not think the refusal was wise, but consistent with Mr. Scott's claim that he cannot run the mines at a profit and pay the rates demanded by the men. It further points out that at Springwood a settlement is about to be made at $7½ cents a ton, and that the Union Coal company at LaSalle, which is operating the same vein as the Spring Valley company, makes a standing offer of $2½ cents a ton, and that the market is here and along the Northwestern road.

The Sentinel adds that the town-site company, which is practically the coal company, has sold lots and induced capital to come here by representing that this was the largest coal mining plant in the country. Should Mr. Scott carry out his threat and close up the mines for six months or more, the paper says many of those people will be bankrupt. The article says:

W. L. Scott may close his mines now, but if the sense of this State and the Legislature do their duty as law makers and executives should, this state of affairs will be regulated and the rights of innocent parties protected."

Result of the Streator Convention.
STREATOR, Ill., Aug. 31.—The miners' convention adjourned at noon Friday after an almost continuous session of twenty-four hours. While the sessions were in progress, enough of the transactions are known to warrant the statement that it was a stormy and tumultuous gathering in which the district officers labored hard to hold their men in check. A resolution was offered agreeing to accept the last offer made by the operators—72½ cents for the Streator coal with proportionate reduction at other points. In addition to this the men ask for fortnightly payments. So evenly divided was the convention that the ballot of power was held by a single delegate, who was entitled to ten votes as the only representative present of 1,000 miners. He voted in the affirmative and the motion prevailed. The offer of the Spring Valley Coal company was rejected, and the men will continue to fight W. L. Scott. The delegates will meet at Joliet Monday to receive the reply of the operators.

ISSUED A COUNTER-MANIFESTO.
London's Disaffected Dock Laborers Have Refused the Offers of the Companies.
LONDON, Aug. 31.—The strikers have issued a manifesto declaring that the terms offered by the directors of the dock companies last night can not be accepted and that they will be forced to call upon all trades of London to strike Monday unless the following terms are granted:

First, 6 pence per hour for ordinary day's work and 8 pence per hour for overtime; second, under contract 8 pence per hour for ordinary day's work and a shilling per hour for overtime; third, overtime to be reckoned between 6 p. m. and 8 a. m.; fourth, men not to be engaged or paid for less than four hours.

THE QUEEN'S SPEECH.
She Comments on the Empire's Condition and Prorogues Parliament.
LONDON, Aug. 31.—Parliament was prorogued Friday until Nov. 10. The Queen in her speech, said:

"My Lords: It is with much satisfaction that I release you from the labors of a protracted session. Our relations with other powers continue most cordial. Since the beginning of the session nothing has happened to diminish our confident expectations of unbroken European peace. The conference upon the affairs of Samoa, consisting of representatives of Great Britain, Germany and America, which assembled at Berlin in the spring, agreed upon a convention regulating the government of those islands. This instrument has been accepted by me and by the Emperor of Germany, and now awaits the assent of the American Senate."

"At my suggestion the King of the Belgians has consented to summon in the autumn a congress of the European powers, to be held at Brussels, to consider the present condition of the slave trade by land and sea, and to deliberate on measures for the arrest and mitigation of the evils which this traffic still inflicts upon mankind."

"I have come to an agreement with the French republic by which the various controversies respecting the boundaries of our respective possessions on the west coast of Africa have been adjusted. The new postal telegraphic convention has been concluded with France and Germany."

"It has afforded me much pleasure to accept the loyal offers of several native princes and chiefs who have come forward to share the military burdens imposed upon my subjects in British India. I welcome their co-operation in the common defense of the empire."

"Gentlemen of the House of Commons: I gladly acknowledge the care and liberality with which you have provided for the wants of the public service."

"My Lords and Gentlemen: The measures you have taken with no grudging hand to strengthen the naval defenses, will enable my subjects to pursue industry and enterprise in more complete security of peace. The act of reforming the local government of Scotland will, I am convinced, contribute largely to the welfare and contentment of my people in Scotland."

The trans from Milwaukee are loaded day-to-day with old soldiers and excursionists on the return trip from Milwaukee. They are all tired, but very happy.

Tickets for Red Riding Hood are for sale at the Woman's Exchange, King &amp; Skelly's and at Palmer &amp; Stevens. Reserved seats without extra charge can be secured at King &amp; Skelly's bookstore.

Those who have been selling tickets for the Queen of the Seasons and have not brought in their extra tickets, are requested to do so at once, as the management desires to settle up the whole matter at once.

Messrs. Bros. Bros., the west side furniture dealers, have something to say in another column about their business. Call on them when in want of something in their line. Their prices are low, and their goods first class.

Mr. A. E. Conway, who has been a student in the law office of Smith &amp; Pierce for several months, returns to his home in Albany, Wis., to-day. He is to enter the law department of the State University this fall.

Lappin's Opera House will ring with lively music this evening. The opera, Queen of the Seasons, is to be presented for the third and last time. You cannot afford to miss hearing it. Admission only 10 and 20 cents.

A band of twenty-five fairies might have been seen yesterday wandering their way through Milwaukee street on their way to the home of Mrs. J. H. Wemple at Oak Lawn. While there they rehearsed for Red Riding Hood and were treated to ice cream.

The annual picnic of the Congregational Sunday school and their friends will take place at Mayflower Park next Tuesday. These are the days when picnics are well appreciated. The Congregational people will no doubt make a success of their annual picnic.

Yesterday was the little son of O. E. Johnson, of the Park Hotel, was driving a horse over in the fourth ward, the animal became suddenly sick. Mr. Johnson and Dr. Roberts were at once called to the spot, and the horse was taken home, and to-day it is quite sick. It is a pet horse, and Mr. Johnson would much regret to lose it.

Married, at the residence of Wm. Buchanan, North Bluff street, Friday evening August 30th, by Wm. F. Brown, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Mr. David Glenn and Miss Annie Y. Hoie. Mr. Glenn is in the employ of Galbraith Brothers. Miss Hoie is an acquaintance of former years who has just arrived from Scotland. They will make their home in this city.

The All Souls church will be opened to-morrow and services held as usual. The new pastor, Rev. O. T. Elliott, will deliver a discourse on the very appropriate topic, "Pastor and People." Mr. Elliott comes highly recommended as a pulpit orator of much ability and as a general man in his social relations. He will be made to feel welcome by the Janesville people.

The opera of Red Riding Hood which will be given next Tuesday evening with a matinee Wednesday afternoon for the benefit of the Woman's Exchange. It should be well patronized. The programme will not be more than an hour long and will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. Music will be furnished by Miss Grace Bennett, whose accomplishments as a pianist are becoming well known to Janesville people.

Our readers will be somewhat surprised at the announcement made in another column of the Chicago Store retiring from business. Since their opening in Janesville seven years ago, they have always done an immense business. We understand Maury Childs will go into the manufacture of buttons in New York City, while Mike is yet undecided, having several offers to go into well established houses in Chicago, but the chances are he will take a much-needed long rest, as advised by physicians.

The nine-month old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leider, of Hanover, died last evening, and will be buried tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock, funeral services being held from the house in Hanover. The grief-stricken parents have the sympathy of the community in which they live. They have only been in this country quite a year, and on the passage over from Germany they lost two little children, who were buried at sea, this being their only surviving child, the cherished household pet of the parents.

A case in the municipal court in which the State of Wisconsin was plaintiff, and Walter Kenyon, the defendant, was tried this afternoon. The complaining witness was Herman Smith, and he accused Kenyon of calling him bad names. After Smith had made several trips to and from Shopiere to get the case under way, Kenyon came up and pleaded guilty and was fined five dollars and costs amounting in all to $14.55. Rather an expensive luxury to pay that amount.

During the month of September we will furnish first class board, with cottage, at $1 per day. September is the pleasantest month of the year at the lake.

THE INDEX LIBEL SUIT.

PATTERSON PLAINS GUILTY AND FINED $50—HIS RETRACTION.

The case of the state against Jesse G. Patterson charged with criminal libel was called in the municipal court this morning. The defendant waived examination and requested the court to order information to be filed at once, which was done and the defendant thereupon pleaded guilty. Upon the request of Mr. Malone, who stated to the court that the court imposed a fine of one dollar and costs amounting to forty-nine dollars and eighty cents which was paid by Mr. Patterson who was then discharged.

The following is the retraction published by Mr. Patterson in the Edgerton Index:

The attack upon District Attorney Malone, in the Index of the 8th inst., was wholly uncalled for and has caused an impression to go abroad which I am anxious to remove. I am a man of honor and character, which is without truth. I have learned that he has done all in his power in the Metcalf murder case and is at present doing his utmost to convict the criminal. The article in question was written on the impulse of the moment without a thought of the injustice it contained toward Mr. Malone. So far as any difference between the district attorney and the republicans of this city, it is a far-fetched piece of gossip with no foundation. The Index has no desire to do any person an injustice, and after thoroughly looking into the charges against Mr. Malone, we find not one grain of truth in them. Our district attorney should not be blamed one particle, nor one bit of ill-feeling directed against him. The article in question should have been retracted, and if it should have been retracted, justice man to man, and if we cannot a wrong we are duty bound to correct the same.

This ends the case, District Attorney Malone not wishing or desiring to proceed further, after the above retraction by Mr. Patterson.

DEVIL'S LAKE.

Wednesday, September 11th, at 9:50 a. m., a special fast train, composed of the finest coaches owned by the great Chicago &amp; Northwestern Railway Company, will leave Janesville for this marvelous lake, arriving there before 12:30 p. m. Returning, leave Devil's Lake at 6:45 p. m.; reach Janesville at 9 p. m. For this strictly first class excursion, round trip tickets will be sold at the extremely low rate of $1.50. If you wish to visit this wonderful, mysterious lake, now is the time, as the O. &amp; N. W. Railway Company will not charter any trains to this point after this year. Tickets at King &amp; Skelly's, and the depot. The train will stop at Clinton, Shopiere and Evansville. Round trip, $1.50.

Beecham's Pills cure bilious and nervous ailments.

FIRE PROTECTION STATISTICS.

WISCONSIN CITIES SHOW UP AND THE STATE TAKES EIGHTH PLACE.

Carefully prepared tables of the fire apparatus in use in the different states have been compiled and published. These tables give Wisconsin eighth place. On the first day of July there were in Wisconsin eighty-two fire engines, twenty-two hook and ladder trucks; hose carriages, hose carts and hose wagons number two hundred. There are 4,833 active firemen in the state. The two hundred hose companies are equipped with 212,750 feet of hose. There are eleven electric fire alarm systems, and eighty other than electric, 330 boxes, and the value of our apparatus and buildings is given at $1,236,000. There are also in the state 159 miles of water pipe, and 4,397 hydrants. Eighty-four towns or villages in the state report no fire protection, and 175 places are supplied with some system of fire protection. In fire department equipment Wisconsin is surpassed only by Indiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania. La Crosse comes next to Milwaukee in respect to fire department, both in efficiency and extensiveness. Oshkosh third, Racine fourth, Eau Claire fifth, and Janesville sixth. Had Janesville a serviceable hook and ladder truck with modern equipments, she would come in next to Milwaukee.

MIRTH AND MUSIC.

MERRY MINSTREL MEN AT LAPPIN'S OPERA HOUSE LAST EVENING.

It is useless to contend that the days of negro minstrelsy are over, when as large an audience will turn out to greet such a troupe, as in spite of the best, assembled at Lappin's Opera House last evening. The performance was very good throughout. There was nothing coarse or vulgar about the entertainment; nothing but what any lady might witness with perfect propriety. Another good feature was the rapidity with which the entertainment was put on the stage, there being no tedious waits, the curtain not going down during the whole performance.

The members of the troupe are all artists. The first part of the entertainment was somewhat after the regular minstrel style, although specialties were introduced through it all. McCabe and Young in their singing and dancing were good and won much applause. Billy Wisdom in his crazyisms brought down the house. He gave some of the gallery girls, who were becoming altogether too noisy, a bit of advice that kept them still the remainder of the evening. Perhaps the best received number on the programme was the Drum Major's dream. A company of brilliantly uniformed drum majors went through some very difficult movements with the baton. The entertainment concluded with a comedy "Ketchi entitled, 'My Aunt Mandy's Big Time,' which was very laughable.
